DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 9-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by Kroesbergen (WO 96/23024), for reasons cited in the previous action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 9-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barch et al. (USPN 4,466,151) or Gaa et al. (USPN 4,810,576), for reasons cited in the previous action.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 6/15/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. Regarding the argument that the superabsorbent forming process of Kroesbergen differs for applicant, the "pasty" composition is just a high viscosity liquid. It is clearly not solid and is applied in a manner in which a liquid, such as coating, may be applied, such as poured and/or brushed on. Applicant's own arguments point out that the viscosity of Kroesbergen's composition may be adjusted with respect to the method of application. The "pasty composition" still qualifies as a high viscosity liquid, as it flows.

Also, both the composition of Kroesbergen and the presently claimed invention involve adding a viscosity modifier in forming the aqueous solution, applying the composition on a substrate and subsequently heating the coating thereby crosslinking (or further crosslinking). The fact that Kroesbergen adds a crosslinking agent, increasing the viscosity of the composition, does not negative the teach of the presently claimed steps. The crosslinking agent is not excluded from the present claims.

Applicant has failed to demonstrate how the "substantially no particulate components, consistent with the originally filed application, negates the rejection based on Kroesbergen. The improvements over compositions comprising particulate or powder is the focus Kroesbergen.

7. With respect to Barch and Gaa, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. As stated in the previous action, the prior art product of the claimed process would possess the presently claimed properties since the composition of the prior art is essentially the same as the claimed composition and the USPTO does not have at its disposal the tools or facilities deemed necessary to make physical determinations of the sort. In any event, an otherwise old composition is not patentable regardless of any new or unexpected properties. In re Fitzgerald et al , 619 F.2d 67, 205 USPQ 594 (CCPA 1980). See MPEP § 2112 - § 2112.02.

Even if assuming that the prior art references do not meet the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 102, it would still have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to arrive at the same inventive composition because the disclosure of the inventive subject matter appears within the generic disclosure of the prior art.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
